T1 G1 DALLAS SOLAR MODULE LLC,

INDEX NO. 651428/2026

Plaintiff,

- v -

RWE AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT,

Defendant.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

By letter dated July 2, 2026 (the "Letter Application"), Lara A. Flath, Esq., counsel for plaintiff T1 G1 Dallas Solar Module LLC, requests that this case be transferred to a Commercial Division Part (CD Part). There has been no opposition filed regarding this request.

On June 29, 2026, the General Clerk's Office determined that this action did not qualify for assignment to the Commercial Division pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.70 (d) (1).

Section 202.70 (d) (1) provides:

> "(1) Within 90 days following service of the complaint, any party may seek assignment of a case to the Commercial Division by filing a Request for Judicial Intervention (RJI) that attaches a completed Commercial Division RJI Addendum certifying that the case meets the jurisdictional requirements for Commercial Division assignment set forth in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of this section. Except as provided in subdivision (e) below, failure to file an RJI pursuant to this subdivision precludes a party from seeking assignment of the case to the Commercial Division."

Counsel for plaintiff represents that service has not been completed because it must be made pursuant to the Hague Service Convention since defendant RWE Aktiengesellschaft is a German corporation. The Complaint states that defendant's registered office is located in Germany (NYSCEF DOC. NO. 2). Counsel contends that while service is pending, this case should be assigned to a CD Part because the complaint alleges a breach of contract claim regarding a guaranty and alleges $100 million in damages. A Request for Judicial Intervention (NYSCEF DOC. NO. 8) and a Commercial Addendum were filed on June 26, 2026 (NYSCEF DOC. NO. 9).

As counsel for plaintiff represents in the Letter Application, the delay in serving defendant is due to compliance with the Hague Service Convention, and a motion was subsequently filed on June 26, 2026, which requests an extension of the time period which plaintiff may complete service. Therefore, the Court holds that the Letter Application demonstrates good cause for the delay in the service of defendant. Furthermore, as this case falls within the subject matter and monetary threshold of cases heard in a CD Part, and due to the complexity which may arise from this litigation, this case will be transferred to a CD Part.

Accordingly, the Letter Application is granted, and this case is to be randomly assigned to a Justice of the Commercial Division.
